

SCOTT P. BARKER

FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Scott Barker is a Financial Advisor with Baystate Financial. He has 28 years of financial services experience and joined Baystate Financial in 2013. He has been a financial advisor since 1998.

Scott believes in long term investing, developing, and sticking to a sound financial strategy through all kinds of market conditions. He considers a diversified portfolio as a prudent investment strategy to reduce risk, increase returns, and help his clients to weather the inevitable ups and downs of market cycles. It is important to Scott that he educates his clients to help them be prepared and patient investors. Scott believes in advising his clients to be balanced, disciplined, and flexible. And, having proper balance is vital to success in one's life and one's investments.

Before joining Baystate Financial, Scott was a financial advisor and registered principal for 15 years with LPL Financial. Scott also worked as a client manager in Fidelity Investments institutional retirement group and managed the plan administration team and recordkeeping operations for one of Putnam's largest institutional clients. Scott received a Bachelor of Arts degree in history from Holy Cross College in Worcester, Massachusetts. He has obtained the Series 7, 6, 24, 65 and 63 FINRA securities registrations. Scott resides in East Sandwich, MA, with his wife and three children. Outside of his advisory practice, Scott enjoys spending time with his family, boating, golfing, cycling and playing hockey.
